BBE SOUND OPENS OFFICE IN KOREA

HD Audio Provider Expands Korean Regional Team

Huntington Beach, Calif., May 21, 2008 – BBE Sound, Inc., a leading developer of advanced sound technologies for the professional audio and consumer electronic markets, today announced it has opened a regional office in Seoul, Korea to support its growing technology licensing business. This is BBE Sound's second new office in the Pacific Rim following the opening of its Tokyo location last month.

Heading the new office as General Manager of the Korea region, is Mr. JC Chung. With over 20 years of experience within the Consumer Electronics ("CE") industry, Mr. Chung is well suited to strengthen BBE Sound's presence in Korea.

"The opening of the Korean office marks BBE's commitment to better serve our local customers," said Mr. Chung. "With our knowledge of this region and previous experience, combined with BBE Sound's renowned audio technology offerings, we will be able to provide Korean CE makers with unparalleled audio solutions."

"Growing our licensing business is a fluid process that requires dedicated focus and expertise," said Steve Hase, vice president of sales and marketing of BBE Sound Licensing Division. "Having an office near our key Korean CE licensees will propel us toward our short- and long-term company goals."
